

2022 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

SATURDAY 1ST OCTOBER

LANDSCAPES
FOR RESILIENCE

EMBRACE
REGROW
HEAL

8.00	Registration
8.30	Conference Welcome Welcome to Country, Wurundjeri Council THA President – Tara Graham Cochrane		REGISTER NOW
8.45	Keynote: Dr Anna Maria Palsdottir Nordic research exploring nature-based interventions (NBI) for health and well-being
9.30	Steven Wells Supporting Healthcare Staff through Covid
10.15	Morning Tea
11.00	Keynote: Andrew Laidlaw VASS gardens developed in conjunction with Global gardens of Peace
11.45	Dr Kate Neale, Stacey Northam and Bree Katsamangos Mother, Nature and Me – Therapeutic gardening for at risk mothers and babies
12.30	Lunch
1.15	Keynote: Dr Jonathan Kingsley Ten actions for bigger picture thinking in therapeutic horticulture in Australia
2.00	Leigh McGaghey Working with Allied Health professionals – what the landscape designer / horticulturist needs to know
2.30	Afternoon Tea
	Concurrent Sessions
	MAIN ROOM	Room 2	Room 3
3.00	Tanya Bearup Providing a TH program for children on the spectrum	Richard Thorpe How to grow psychological flexibility in the garden	Kit Kline 15mins Bringing nature indoors for therapeutic practice. Alina Hinton-Tooley 15mins The untapped role of horticultural therapy after infant death
3.40	Tara Graham Cochrane Gardens that care – Designing therapeutic landscapes	Patrick Wain The Grow Model – Overview and current use for group and individual outcomes	Dan Austin A lifetime of changing people’s lives with plants in Australia and abroad
4.20	Cath Manuel Providing TH for NDIS participants	Rebecca Taylor Wyld Work project - What does it take to become one	David Lewis Building landscape for resilience in low income countries and include marginalized people
4.50	Close
5.30	Cocktail Party

Australian Institute of Horticulture

WEB - PRINT - CSS.COM.AU